

Sagri Co., Ltd

Sumitomo Building 18th Floor, 2-6-1, Nishi-Shinjuku, Shinjuku-ku, Tokyo

Basic Information

Industry	Information Technology Industry
Company Profile	Sagri Co.,Ltd, a university-origin startup from Gifu University, was founded in 2018 in Hyogo Prefecture with the vision of “Achieving Coexistence Between Humanity and the Earth.” Centered around AI-powered satellite data analysis, Sagri provides innovative services to address agricultural and environmental issues, including “Actaba,” an app to detect abandoned farmland; “Detaba,” an app for crop prediction; and “Sagri,” a farming support app for soil analysis. Sagri received the Prime Minister’s Award at the 6th Space Development and Utilization Grand Prize.
Major Country and Regions of Interest	India
Business Activities	Business creation through satellite data analysis and machine learning
Company PR	At Sagri, you will have the unique opportunity to shape the future of agriculture and contribute to the fight against climate change. You will be at the forefront of developing cutting-edge solutions that impact sustainability and food security.
URL	https://sagri.tokyo/en

Recruitment information

Open Positions	Engineer You can be a software engineer or a machine learning engineer with us.
Work Locations (Prefecture)	Tokyo
Major department	Science and Technology
Required Japanese level	Daily Conversation Level
Welcomed languages	—
Subject of application	Mid-career, Doctoral students (Ph.D.) , Experienced engineers
Acceptance of Internships	Internship Not Accepted