Japan External Trade Organization (JETRO) is the Japanese governmental agency for trade and investment promotion. This year, JETRO will invite international buyers and distributors to meet Japanese small and medium size companies seeking foreign partners to penetrate new markets. In the selected exhibitions featuring machineries industry, JETRO will arrange business meetings between program participants and Japanese suppliers.

Preferable Invitees

- Company's decision makers for its purchasing activities.
- Middle or senior management who are seeking new business collaborations or developing new technologies with Japanese companies.

Expenses to be covered by JETRO

- Airfare (Round trip ticket to Japan)
- Transportation fees in Japan
- Accommodation in Japan
- Travel insurance
- One interpreter per company for the B to B meetings.

* Different conditions will be applied in each exhibition. Please contact your nearest JETRO office for details.

Benefits for Participants

- Find new suppliers, new products, new technologies.
- Pre-arranged meetings, which can save your valuable time to find suitable business partners.
- Pre-arranged interpreter, so that you can talk with Japanese companies in your own language.
