

Examples of cooperation programs between Eurocopter and Japan aerospace industry

December, 17th 2013

thinking without limits

Eurocopter in a nutshell

- Business unit of EADS (future Airbus Group)
- Around 20.000 employees
- 2.964 customers operating 11.821 helicopters in 148 countries
- 6,3 billions € of turnover in 2012
 - 2,2 billions € of turnover through subsidiaries

Eurocopter Japan Overview

Established in 2009

President & CEO: Stéphane Ginoux

(also holds the position of Airbus Japan President & CEO)

260 employees in Tokyo and Kobe

Kobe Airport

Tokyo Heliport

Tokyo, Shinsuna
Logistics Center

Tokyo, Roppongi
HQ

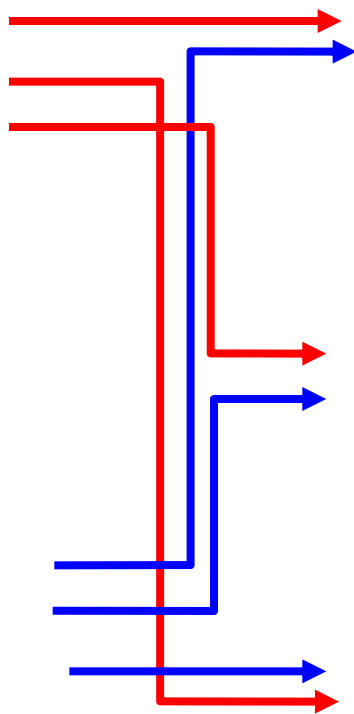

Kawasaki Heavy Industries and Eurocopter Co-development - The EC145/BK 117 story

KHI Workshare

ECD Workshare

BK117 C2
KHI Assembly line
Japan

UH72
EC Assembly line
USA

EC145
EC Assembly line
Germany

BK117 C2
=
EC145
=
UH72 LUH

EC145/BK117 main facts

- 30 year co-development program between Germany and Japan
- More than 1000 helicopters sold worldwide
- Selected by US Army as their new generation LUH
- 350 UH72 sold - 250 helicopters already delivered
- Growth potential & promising market opportunities

R&D activities

- Researching and development of equipment for the safer helicopter, more usability, and cost efficiency
- Connect local resources and our expertise to global aviation industries
- Authorized by METI as R&D hub center for the first time for foreign affiliated aeronautic company

- Broadcast system installation

- EMS (Doctor-Heli) equipment

- Fire attack, tank and bucket