

Just putting your favorite ingredients on top and baking in a pan makes a rice cake pizza, with a novel texture that is both sticky and crispy!

Mochi Pizza Sheet

(rice pizza crust)

For general use

For professional use

It is made only from sticky rice produced in the Kyushu region and gluten-free. (No flour is used.) It is easy to cook simply by pan-frying. It is very popular for its sticky yet crispy texture, remaining soft even when it becomes cold.

* Available for professional use (frozen)
