CLEANTECH X JAPAN

Transforming Japanese Energy Market

Presented by:

Interested in the Japanese energy market? Join us and learn more about opportunities in the Japanese energy industry today. Three of the largest Japanese energy companies will be discussing opportunities in the Japanese electric & gas utilities, and oil industries. Also, established cleantech startups will share their stories on entering the Japanese market and startups preparing to venture into the Japanese market will share their activities. This event is supported by the Japanese government.
