ABOUT THIS EVENT

This sake seminar and tasting event will feature an introduction to sake by John Gauntner and a presentation of different sakes from across Japan as well as pairings between sake and different types of seafood. There will also be a business matching event where industry professionals can connect with different sake breweries. Come join us for an educational afternoon on the qualities of Japanese sake.

This event is for food and beverage professionals only, and is not available to the general public.

EVENT HIGHLIGHTS

- An informational lecture by John Gauntner
- Sake samples from different regions in Japan
- Sake food pairings with several kinds of seafood

GUEST SPEAKER

John Gauntner is the world's leading non-Japanese expert on sake. He was the second non-Japanese person to pass the Sake Expert Assessor exam given by the National Research Institute of Brewing, and received the Sake Samurai designation the first year it was awarded. He is the author of six books on sake, co-publishes the magazine Sake Today, and has certified over 1800 students through his Sake Professional Course.
