事務所コメント (Messages to your potential clients in Japan)	The Intellectual Property Practice Group at Baker & McKenzie's Bangkok office is one of the most high-profile IP legal consultancies in Thailand. We advise the largest and most wellknown international and domestic clients, and also play a significant role in the regulatory and legislative process as it pertains to intellectual property.
	Over the past twelve months, our IP practice has continued to provide market-leading trademark registration and rigorous enforcement services, as well as a full range of copyright, media, and online advisory and licensing services. In addition to our strong trademark prosecution services, we also have unparalleled capabilities in Thailand's Media & Entertainment sector. Our team handles complex matters related to commercial IP, including e-commerce and other related regulatory issues.
	With reference to patents, our team comprises highly respected and qualified patent practitioners. Our patent clients range from the large international and domestic clients, to SMEs and individual inventors.
	Our patent practice continues to provide market-leading registration and rigorous enforcement services, and a full range of other advisory and licensing services. Under the leadership of Say Sujintaya and Tanakrit Tangburanakit and utilizing the legal and technical expertise of Radeemada Mungkarnde, our substantive patent practice, including patent searches, drafting, prosecution, and litigation services, continues to grow and advance.
