

Flavourful Fukushima

– Seminar & Business Matching Event –

Explore new opportunities; Experience the flavours of Fukushima

Friday, 31st July 2015

Explore new sources of Japanese products with “Flavourful Fukushima”! Find out more about the local products of Fukushima through the seminar. Experience and enjoy Fukushima’s famed sake, rice, beef and peaches while networking with Japanese producers. As the demand for Japanese products grow steadily in Singapore, this event is definitely one not to be missed.

15:00 - 16:00 Seminar session: Introducing Fukushima Lyrebird Room – Level 3

1. Fukushima's recovery and the measures being taken to ensure safety
2. Fukushima's products (peaches, beef, rice and sake), how they're produced and their quality
3. "Let's enjoy Fukushima's flavours!"

16:10 - 19:00 Food tasting reception and business matching session Riverfront 2 & 3 – Level 2

Get a first-hand experience of the taste and quality of Fukushima products at the food-tasting reception. Peaches, beef, rice and sake will be flown in from Fukushima prefecture and prepared on the spot so that participants can be ensured the freshest flavours of Fukushima. While enjoying good food, participants can also ask questions about the products, build up their networks and expand their businesses by interacting with suppliers of these products at the food-tasting reception itself.

GRAND COTHORNE WATERFRONT HOTEL
392 Havelock Road, Singapore 169663
