1. Information on Ishikawa Prefecture

Outline of Ishikawa

Ishikawa Prefecture is located in the center of the main island of Japan. It has a north-south coastline along the Sea of Japan, and an area of approximately 4,185km². The population is 1,163,968 (as of April 1, 2010). Kanazawa, Ishikawa's capital city, has many major institutions, including branch offices of national organizations, financial institutes, and leading companies. It plays an important role as the political and economic center of the three prefectures that make up the Hokuriku region, and has good access to the major cities of Tokyo, Osaka and Nagoya.

Ishikawa is also blessed with a natural environment of mountains, coastal areas and rivers, as represented by Noto Peninsula Quasi-national Park, Echizen-Kaga Coast Quasi-national Park and Hakusan National Park.

In addition, Ishikawa has preserved its traditional culture that flourished in the Edo period (1603-1867). Since the prefecture has not suffered from wartime attacks or great natural disasters such as earthquakes, it retains many historical sites such as Kenrokuen, one of the three most beautiful gardens in Japan, historical buildings and precious cultural assets. It has also preserved traditional crafts and industries, as well as performing arts, through the generations.

Access

Komatsu Airport has many domestic flights to Tokyo(Haneda and Narita), Sapporo, Sendai, Shizuoka, Fukuoka, and Okinawa and international direct lines to Seoul, Shanghai and Taipei as well as about ten of charter flights a year to international airports. In addition, Luxembourg's Cargolux airline has access to Komatsu Airport for international cargo planes. Noto Airport has two daily flights to Tokyo. Ishikawa prefecture is accessible from Narita Airport via Haneda Airport, and from Kansai Airport by JR train.

Industries

The major industries of Ishikawa are the machinery and metal industry, the textile industry and the food industry. In fiscal 2008 delivered manufactured products broke down as follows: 65.8% from the machinery and metal industry, 7.5% from the textile industry and 9.5% from the food industry. Some of the prefecture's machinery manufacturers are leading companies in niche industries that supply high-quality products to the world market. Because of the advantageous humid weather of the Hokuriku region, the textile industry has been leading the Ishikawa economy for a long time. Still today it manufactures a variety of products based on past experience and state-of-the-art technology.

Recently, there has been remarkable development in the electronics and IT-related industries, and the rate of concentration of companies related to the information service industry ranks fourth in the country. More than 100 companies were invited to establish plants or offices in Ishikawa in the past 30 years. In particular, IT-related industries have been mainly invited to Ishikawa during the last 10 years. Consequently, the index of Ishikawa's industrial production was 114.3, according to a 2003 survey, as compared to the reference value of 100 for 1995, which is the highest in the country.

Ishikawa's gross production was 4,709.1 billion yen in fiscal 2008 and the value of delivered manufactured products was 2,812.6 billion yen in fiscal 2009.

Ishikawa Prefectural Government : Newyork Representative Office

Our New York office was established in April 2004, when the San Francisco office was moved to New York. It supports Ishikawa companies that want to establish a business base overseas and expand their overseas market, and promotes investment in Ishikawa.

Ishikawa Prefectural Government : Shanghai Representative Office

Our Shanghai office was established in October 1997, for the purpose of providing the latest information on investment in China, in response to a strong interest in China, particularly in Shanghai, on the part of Ishikawa companies. The office provides information related to investment in China, organizes a network of Ishikawa companies and related organizations in China, and makes arrangements for delegations from Ishikawa. In addition, since fiscal year 2004, it has been promoting the development of a sales market for companies in Ishikawa in response to the expansion of the consumer market in China, as well as encouraging investment in Ishikawa.
